Values of the company

ATLANTIS KV strongly believes in human rights, respectful human values, a fair economy and certain political changes necessary for a better world.

Inspired by accepting and believing in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights by the United Nations, the following values have been defined:

- human rights: human dignity | justice | equal chances | education | freedom of speech and religion
- human values: humility | participation | open-mindedness | honesty | sharing | accepting criticism | giving chances
- political change: strong European partnership | integration of Bosnia into EU | subsidiarity | flatter hierarchies
- fair economy: basic income | salary and wealth cap | profit share

Values of the company

Furthermore, ATLANTIS KV operates on the highest moral and ecological standards. Thus, the three core values of the company are:

- ethical: all people are welcome, operating on ethical standards
- ecological: ecological sustainability, minimise waste and emissions for the smallest possible ecological footprint
- local: local production helps both ecology and the local economy; with a global consciousness and awareness, the aim is to act locally for a global audience.
